The Agenda, Strategy and Activities of the ICCE

John Bales
International Council for Coach Education

26 August 2011
INSEP, France

ICCE Mission

• To lead and support the global development of coaching as a profession and to enhance the quality of coaching at every level in sport, guided by the needs of members, federations, nations and key partners.

ICCE - ASOIF Project Group on the Global Framework for the Recognition of Coaching Competence and Qualifications

• Co-chairs ITU President Marisol Casado and ICCE VP Europe Pat Duffy
• “a reference point in the development, implementation, review of coaching systems”

Global – European Coaching Office

• ICCE – Leeds Metropolitan University agreement signed at Papendal, 2010
• Welcome to Senior Research Fellow Sergio Lara-Bercial!
• Technical / admin officer to start in fall
• Appreciation to Gareth Davies, Dean, Carnegie Faculty of Sport and Education

Coaching as a Profession

• Engagement of coaches associations, under leadership of Frank Dick, Miguel Crespo and José Curado
• Duffy, Pat et al. (2011) “Sport Coaching as a ‘profession’: challenges and future directions”, International Journal of Coaching Science (vol 5, #2)
ICCE Innovation Group of Leading Agencies
Member organizations taking a lead role in accelerating the work of ICCE
- Quality Improvement in Coaching
  Chair: Adrian Bürgi
- Teaching and Learning
  Chair: Penny Crisfield
- High Performance Coaching
  Chair: John Bales

ICCE Innovation Group of Leading Agencies

| Trainerakademie DOSB, Germany |
| SASCOC South Africa |
| Coaching Association of Canada |
| NOC*NSF, Netherlands |
| INSEP, France |
| Israel Sport Authority |
| Australian Sports Council |
| BASPO Switzerland |
| High Performance Sport New Zealand |
| Leeds Metropolitan University, UK (host of ICCE/ECC office) |

Global Coaches House – London 2012
- A meeting and focal point for the coaches and coaching organizations of the world during London 2012
- Partnership with Leeds Metropolitan University and Morrisons PLC

ICCE Research Committee
Co-chairs Pierre Trudel, Cliff Mallet
ICSEMS pre-Olympic Conference, Glasgow 19-24 July: ICCE Seminars
- Coaching as a profession
- Learning and development of high quality coaches of elite athletes

Dr. JK Park, Korea
Coaching Development Centre, Publisher

Thank you
see you at the Global Coach House, July 2012
- www.icce.ws
- jbales@coach.ca