

Thoughts of a manager

Javier Imbroda Ortiz

Atenas 2016

Various conclusions

- Ability to dream. What is yours?
- Passion. Love your sport without fear (and without expecting acknowledgement).
- Desire to learn, desire to discover.
- Is it possible to coach the enthusiasm?
- Coaches Associations are a very individualistic collective (paradox).

Various conclusions

- Do not forget where your origins are.
- Talent without effort only serves to have fun.
- Success in a team is not in technical features, but in personal features.
- A winning team is one that stands up following defeat.

Various conclusions

- Let the values of the game accompany you.
- Share your passion with other projects.
- Help people that need it as much as possible.
- Helping compensates more than winning a title or a championship.

Thank you very much
