

Dear Colleagues,

The International Council for Coaching Excellence (ICCE) and its continental group European Coaching Council would like to invite you and your organisation to the 2nd European Meeting of Coaches Associations and Coaching Organisations. After the success of our 1st European Meeting in Cologne, Germany in April 2014 we wish to continue with shaping up the representation of sport coaches and sport coaching on European level.

The aim of the meeting is to share best practice from countries and sports with long experience in the field; showcase and discuss the cooperation between national and continental associations of coaches and coaching organisations, their cooperation with national and international/European governing bodies. We also intend to discuss issues related to the coaching professions and debate on future representation at the European level.

The meeting will be organised in Athens, Greece in cooperation with Hellenic Federation of Sports Coaches and Trainers (POPA) on 23-24 May 2016. The tentative schedule is:

May 23 (Monday): 14:00-18:00: Session 1;
19:00: Official Dinner by Ministry of Tourism;
May 24 (Tuesday): 9:00-13:00: Session 2.

Soon we will publish a draft agenda and all practical information for the meeting.

Please confirm your preliminary interest at your earliest convenience by sending email to the ICCE Secretary General Ladislav Petrovic at l.petrovic@icce.ws.

Best regards,

Jose Curado
Vice President (Europe)
International Council for Coaching Excellence

ICCE Global Coaching Office

Room 109, Cavendish Hall
Leeds Beckett University
Church Wood Ave, Leeds, LS6 3QS, UK
E-mail: office@icce.ws
Phone: +44 (0) 113 812 3251